

MADAME TUSSAUD WAX HEAD, NINETEENTH CENTURY

SKU: 1760

Condition very good condition

Country Origin England

Date of Manufacture around 1850

Size 1 28 cm H

Size 2 20 cm W

Size 3 22 cm D

Material wax

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

" The Sentenced to Death", wax head, blown glass eyes.

By 1835 Madame Tussaud had settled down in London, and opened a museum. The exhibition included victims of the French Revolution and newly created figures of murderers and other criminals.

Dimensions: 28 cm H x 20 cm W x 22 cm D

GALLERY IMAGES

